2. He has seen our sweat and tears
in the heat of the day
Oh, we're going out of Egypt!
With His mighty outstretched arm
He has made us a way
Oh, we're going out of Egypt!
3. No more weeping, weary hearts
when we are in His sight
Oh, we're going out of Egypt!
He has given us the strength we need to walk in light
Oh, we're going out of Egypt!
4. So we'll go out with the saints and bring a sacrifice
Oh, we're going out of Egypt!
With our brothers and our sisters
we will feast on Christ
Oh, we're going out of Egypt!

Around the time of writing this song, I was working as a doctor's assistant at an extremely busy clinic that was understaffed. It was my first full-time job, and I was met with weariness every day much like the Israelites probably experienced in Egypt under Pharaoh's hand. This song joyfully expresses the spiritual longing and reality of God bringing me out to where He is despite the physical circumstances. In reality, He's my Master and there's purpose, joy, and strength because the Lord made a way through His Son.
