

How Jesus Disciples

Instructor: Philip Tsao

Time: Tuesday 7:00-8:00 PM ET

Class Size: Limit of 30

When it comes to following Jesus, some people are clear that they would rather go the way of the world; others live so spiritually that they seem to float on clouds. Many of the rest of us are content to be “middle-of-the-road” Christians. In Jesus’s eyes, however, there is no such thing--we are constantly either growing with Him or traveling a different path. In this class we will explore nine aspects of how Jesus spent time with those who chose Him, bringing them into His own view, living, and pathway to glory. This is not a class on how to conform to a “good Christian in the church” standard. Rather, it will touch on some ways we can have a life that is rich with eternal value, filled with Himself, as His disciples. There will be about 30 minutes of homework per week outside of class time.
